

Stand Up Straight, Grand Junction!

Find your voice and use it in support of your neighbors.

What: As straight allies, it is our responsibility to demand equal rights for our GLBT neighbors. Join us for our peaceful demonstration acknowledging that equality must apply to everyone in our community. All are welcome!

When: Wednesday, September 17, 2008
5pm

Where: Meet at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the Grand Valley (1022 Grand Avenue) to make a luminary or poster and walk with us down Main Street. Our procession will end at the old county courthouse on Rood.

About 7 Straight Nights for Equal Rights

Cities across the nation will host Actions during the week of September 14th—20th.

Every Action will be unique to its city.

We come together peacefully in an effort to encourage our communities to stand up and demand that equal rights apply to every human being.

Grand Junction is proud to participate in this gathering of fair-minded individuals and their families.

Please join us.
